An official Communist report said today that Chinese Communist troops had entered Northern Tibet.

The Communist New China News Agency distributed a report by Wang Chen, secretary of the Sinkiang Branch of the Chinese Communist Party, revealing the move.

Wang, in a summary of developments in the far Western Sinking area during the year, wrote: "People's troops co-operating with multinational armies brought liberation to the whole province (Sinking) and also entered Northern Tibet."

Korean prepares rogues

Tokyo, October 7. The United Nations High Command is proparing an "international rogues gallery" of 30 North Koreans to be prosecuted as war criminals for the massacra of 170 Americans and nearly 2,000 South Koreans.

The major problem at the moment is to find these 'public enemies" and to learn the identity of the officers who ordered them to commit crimes against humanity.

Colonel George W. Hickman judge advocate of the UN Command, and Lieutenant Colonel William N. Smoak, head of the Judge Advocato's war crimes division, said the High Command is investigaling carefully all reports of atrocities by North Koreans in preparation for war crimes

Concerts by schools orchestra

The Hong Kong Schools Orchestra is busy rehearsing to take part in the two grand concerts which will be given during the Colony's Education Week-the first at King George V School on November 7, and the second at King's College on November 0 It is planned to have items from both concerts broadcast by Radio Hong Kong.

Mr. Ronald Fraser, music mester, said he is very pleased with the progress being made by the Orchestra-although more membors are needed to bring it up to full strength.

Bit by bit little difficulties are being smoothed out and the Orchestra is gradually getting the equipment it needs. For example, sufficient sheet music is now available for each violinist retain a copy for practice at home most essential if perfection is to be reached, he added.

The Orchestra rehearses weekly, every Monday at 5 o'clock in the Murie Room. Northeote Training College, Bonham Hoad. Tomorrow the Senior Inspector of Schools and a Woman Inspector will attend the rehearsal; There are still vacancles, Mr. Fraser said, for school pupils who play an instrument and who would like to join the Orchestra.

UN TO DISCUSS CHILEAN PLAN

Lake Success, October 6. The United Nations' Political Committee will next week consider a proposal by Chile that the United Nations make a solemn pact to unite their efforts and resources, including armed forces, to resist aggression.

The proposal will come before the Committee in a debate beginning on Monday on the American plant for strengthening the Assembly's powers to act against breaches of the peace when the Security Council is paralysed by the veto.

The Chilean resolution also proposes that members of the United Nations be invited to: (1) Observe all important resolutions of the Sequrity Council and Assembly concerning the maintenance of peace and secu-

Bulgarian request

Solia, October 6. Eulgaria today renewed her request to the Turkish Government to give immediate and unconditional admittance to Bulgorian Moslems of Turkish origin anxious to emigrate to

.The request was made in a note handed to the Turkish Legation here. It called for a reduction to the barest minimum of all-paperwork connected with the emigration of Bulgarian Moslems, and emphasized that the number of would-be emigrants was con-

The note alleged that the Turkish authorities were putting artificial obstacles in the way of the emigrants. It blamed Turkey for cases of emigrants arriving in the country without visas.

(A Bulgarian-Turkish agreement of 1925 provided for the emigration to Turkey of Bulgarian Moslems, who were to be allowed to take all their movable property with them.

(Recent Turkish reports have alleged that immigrants were arriving penniless, having been obliged to part with all their belongings before emigration. (To stem the reported, "mass influx of destitute refugees", a number; of measures were taken by the Turkish authorities, some of which led to some, of the emigrants being sent back to Bulgaria or left stranded in

(On August 10,- Bulgaria demanded the admittance into Turkey within three months of 250, 000 Moslems of Turkish origin. Turkey rejected the time limit and demanded regotiations). --

I met Mr. Templeton at party last week, and shortly efter we were introduced he said he had once worked . for Mr. Shaw as an assistant secretary. That was some years ago, but his recollections of the famous writer were still vivid.

He said it was a wonderful thing that Mr. Shaw was able to recover, because physicians had often warned him that any secident might well prove fatal. On Mr. Shaw's 90th birthday —four years ago—doctors told him not to walk in his garden without the aid of a strick. The reply they got was that all his life he had walked with a stick -with which to hit doctors who irritated him.

Mr. Templeton said it.was very difficult to get along with Mr. Shaw because the latter's vanity and sense of importance were notorious. As it turned out, poor Nicky was suffering from slight nausea and would greatly have preferred a slice of lemon. "Why didn't you say so?" we muttered as we mopped him up.

Before marriage we noticed with pride that our future husband had a reputation for wit and telling a good story. It is not too surprising that, in the course of more than 10 years, the man has had occasion to repeat himself.

UN FORCES WILL NOT CROSS KOREA BORDER

Assurances given by Britain and America DEBATE IN ASSEMBLY

Lake Success, October 6. The United States and Britain today gave solemn assurances that United Nations forces will not cross the Korean border into Communist China or the Soviet Union.

These pledges were made as several influential delegates suggested privately that the President of the Fifth General Assembly, Mr. Nasrallah Entezam, sound a call for the North Koreans to cease hostilities. If Mr. Entezam consents, this is expected to be made immediately after the passage of the eight-power Korean peace plan, possibly on Satur-

Mr. Warren R. Austin, United States, and Mr. Kenneth Younger, Britain, spoke for the eight-nation Plan in the final stages of the Assembly debate.

Mr. Younger told the Assembly that the UN had taken a nistoric decision in June to resist aggression by force. anyone outside the Assembly—for instance Communist China -feared that UN forces might carry hostilities on beyond Korea or remain in Korea longer than the UN objectives demanded, "I give them my solemn assurance that their fears have no foundation.'

The Assembly rejected a Soviet Union motion to invite North Koreans here to take part in discussions on the Korean issue. There were six votes in favour. 41 againt and six abstentions,

The eight-nation plan was approved by the Assembly's Political Committee, by a vote of 47 to 7, more than enough to overcome the two-thirds vote bar in

Plan's provisions The eight-Power plan provides that all constituent steps should be taken including the holding of elections under United Nations auspices, for establishing a unified, independent democratic government in Korea. It also provides for a new

The 'Assembly's President, Nasrollah Entazam (Persia), today called on Mr. Thor Thors (Iceland), Rapporteur of the Political Committee, to present the report of the Committee's action on the Korean issue,

Mr. Kenneth Younger, Minister of State, said that all who had voted for United Nations responsibility in Korea should vote for the acceptance of the eight-Power plan.

"Having saved Korea by the force of its collective will," he said, "the United Nations must now help Korea save Itself* in future through the application of its collecttive intelligence upon the social and economic problems of the Korean people." Mr. Warren Austin (United States) "said-that" two things re-

Twin thunders

Defence and cost of living everyone reasonably happy. are the twin thunders that roll from the mouths of Australian statesmen and chirrup in more excited tones from the lips of lesser people days. As the two things are mutually involved everyone's interested, willy-milly. It is customary for Prime Ministers from time to time to hook up all the radio stations for a nationwide talk on some question of the moment. Now Prime Minister Menzles has gone one better. He's hooking all the stations for a series of talks on matters of defence, taking each section of the forces separately.

He's been pulling no punches, points direct to the prospects of Communist aggression, says that sincere people who think the surest way to peace is to keep away from making the weapons of war, are misguided, says, also, that there is far too much wishful thinking.

Most important announcement, apart from overall lifts in servicemen's pay, was that in future Australians who enlisted either in the Regular Army or in the Commonwealth . Militia would enlist for service anywhere world. In the Australian territory only that, apart from the imitations, brought about armies in Australia during last war - the AIF and militin-and caused a lot of illfeeling and subsequent confusion.

No compulsion Point about the new decision is that there's no compulsion to It's not conscription, a very tender corn in Australia's history and one which politicians avoid as much as possible, but it cloes widen the field.

These moves, together with a pepped-up recruiting campaign and an elaborate scheme for compulsory military training keep people reminded that although the tide has turned in Korea there's no real justification for settling back into an easy complacent attitude of peace.

plans for exemptions from the rise. It's all very confusing.

A counter proposal was that there should be an export tax on wool, the money to be used to subsidise the local textile market and keep prices down and to found a stablisation fund against future evil days in the wool The wool growers opposed this so strongly that now looks as if the scheme will be abandoned and a fresh move made towards revaluation.

Stockowners are also getting black looks from the cities. Meat prices are high and one member of Parliament blamed the price on the greed and avarice of the stockowners. The trouble is that no one has been able to devise a workable formula for fixing the price of stock on the hoof, and retail butchers have to buy meat at prices which give them practically no margin of profit. Mr. Hoffman said: "In Western Europe you have 270, million hardworking and resourceful people. 'But your gross national product last year was only $160,-

Mr. Hoffman told the Finance and Financial and Economic chiefs of the OEEC nations: "We in America have 150 million people, but our gross national product last year was $260,000 million. If Western Europe had produced on the same per capita basis, her gross national product would have been $470,000 million.

"Western Europe does not have all the natural resources that we possess. But there is one great resource we have and Europe does not, which Europe could possess—and that is single great market."

If that market were achieved through integration, and if better use were made of the resources Europe already possessed, West-

Mr. Hoffman said: "We have got to bring to the waging of the peace the same energies of mind that we brought to the waging of the war. . The West still has time, in my opinion, to win the peace. But we have got to wage it on all the fronta - military, economia, political, informational and psychological."

The Finance Ministers, composing the 18-pation OEEC Governing Council, met here with financial experts today to consider a memorandum on the efforts of rearmament plans on Western 'Europe's economic problems. The memorandum prepared by M. Robert Marjolin, the OEEC

Secretary-General, urged: 1.-The prevention of inflation and the maintenance of internal financial stability with each country adapting its economic and military programme to its financial resources.

last right. The Government issued a declaration thanking the people for "defending their courageous attitude and proving to the world that Austria will never become a 'People's Democracy.' "

Life in Vienna returned to normal today after two days' havec Leaders of the strikers' Action Committee suddenly ordered the men back to work last night, but today a spokesman threatened new action. They had originally called for a general strike from Tuesday midnight to protest against the Government's revision of wages and prices. Only about 50,000 of the country's 1,500,000 workers obeyed the call. Herr Helmer declared that the strike had not been a måtter of wages and prices, but had involved the existence of the Republic.

Cominform agents had again tried to sacrifice the workers for their own ends, to bring chaos into Austria's economic life and lay the foundations of a "People's Democracy."

.. Steps must now be taken to show certain elements that the common good comes before their profits, he added.

Political observers believed the sudden collapse of the strike was largely due to the withdrawal of Russian support. But they did not know why this had been withdrawn at a time when the strikers were still able to cause much trouble. The Socialist Party had called "freedom demonstration" for tomorrow in the square in front of Vienna's City Hall where the strikers' leaders had held a rally on Tuesday,-Reuter.

Why? S'easy, I just didn't have it. I ain't got the snap and reflex at 36 of a young fighter. Maybe it could have been different if I didn't hurt my left wrist along about the third round.

Now I want to tell anyone who may be fighting Charles that he's a tough man to get a punch at but if there's one punch which could be got at him it's a left

Tears were there

He was there to win, and he did his job. You just can't take that away, no matter how you try; and let it go on record that Joe Louis ain't trying to,

It was very hard for me to leave the stadium after the fight. Yankee Stadium's the place where I fought my first big fight. against Primo Carnera in 1935. Three for one

Confusion exists, and I do not wonder, as to the difference between bogey and the standard beratch score. There is none. When the Union in 1925 proluced their scheme for standardising the means by which bogey was fixed they gave their creation a new name. Three words

It involves the Standard Par: the adjustment for playing length (not to be confused with the Length Adjustment); Course Value; and, now, the Putting Adjustment-all assuming that you have first accurately placed your course in the correct of six Groups and are in possession of a chain, by which each hole is to be accurately measured along the middle of the fairway from a point six feet in front

ST. JOSEPH'S BEAT CLUB TROUNCED BY ARMY

The local soccer season entered its second week yesterday without any upset being recorded in any of the games played.

Joseph's accounted for Chinese AA by three goals to two at Boundary Street while Army, who were hosts to the Club at Sookunpoo, scored a convincing 6-0 victory over their guests.

The game between Eastern | players' legs to find the net with and Kwong Wah at Causeway Bay ended in a win for Kwong Wah by five goals to two, after Eastern had taken the lead.

The victory of St. Joseph's was due in a large measure to their solid defence and also to the lack of initiative on the part of the CAA forwards when rear goal.

The St. Joseph's intermediate trio of G. Fernandes, D. Leonard Santos, backed veteran Bertle Gosano and Rumjahn in the full-back berth, give nothing away and when opposing forwards manage to break through, J. . Cheng, the goalle, rose to the occusion.

The right wing combination of G. Pereira and J. Castilho, delighted the crowd with their fine understanding of each other's play and with speedy dashes down the wing. Rimmer, leader of the St
